Petersbourg, Dec. 31.

ON Tuesday last her Imperial Majesty went into the Country to take the Diversion of Hunting, and is expected in Town again this Evening. The Point which has been so long depending, concerning the Emperor's giving the Czarina the Title of Imperial Majesty, being at last settled to the mutual Satisfaction of the two Courts, Baron Neuhaus, who was sent hither by the Emperor, eighteen Months ago, with the Character of Minister Plenipotentiary, is to have his first Audience of her Imperial Majesty, to deliver his Credentials, in a few Days. His Imperial Highness does not, as yet, appear in Publick, on Account of his Indisposition. The Day before Yesterday M. de la Chetardie received a Courier from Stockholm, dispatched by the French Ambassador the 12th Instant. The same Courier brought Dispatches to the Swedish Minister, General During, amongst which was a Letter from the Prince Royal of Sweden to the Empress, and M. During is to deliver it to her Imperial Majesty after her Return to Town. Count Barck, who is to succeed General During as Minister from the King of Sweden, has already passed the Bothnic Gulph, and is expected here in a few Days.

Naples, January 4. In the last Week the King performed the Ceremony of investing Cardinal Corsini with the Cardinal Cap. The Chamber of Finances has fixed the Manner of raising the extraordinary Contribution of a Million of Ducats, required by the King, towards the Expences of putting his Forces in the best Posture against all Events; which is exacted with Rigour, and occasions an extraordinary Uneasiness and Discontent. Frequent Councils are held at Court on the Dispatches brought by the Couriers from Spain, and upon the daily Arrival of Officers from M. de Gages's Army. The Military Dispositions, and the Raising of the Militia, are continued with great Assiduity. From Calabria we have received the melancholy Account of an Earthquake that happened there, by which the City of Chieti has suffered greatly. The Accounts of the Sickness in that Province are this Week rather more favourable, the Malady seeming to decrease daily.

Florence, Jan. 14. From Lombardy we are informed, that on the 4th General Vettez was arrived at Placentia on his Return from Turin, and on the 6th proceeded to Rimini to give an Account to Prince Lobcowitz of the Commissions he had executed at that Court. It is reported that the Confines of the States, which the Queen of Hungary has lately yielded to the King of Sardinia, are fix'd to the Rivulet Nura; and that to this End, on the 10th Commissaries from the Court of Turin were expected to arrive at Placentia, as also the Marquis of St. Giulia, the Governor of Tortona, in order to take Possession of those States. On the 7th the Battalion of 950 Recruits from Tuscany, with the Loss of three Men only by Desertion, arrived at Bologn, and on the 9th proceeded to Prince Lobcowitz's Army. The Armies in the Romagna continue in their former Situations, the Austrians at Rimini, &c. having of late extended Parties of Hussars and Croatians to the Ferrarese and lower Romagna for the Conveniency of Forage. The Spaniards remain also at Pesaro and Fano. On the 5th M. de Gages detached a Party of about 400 Horse and Foot towards Fossombrone, other Detachments to Furlo, Urbino and Gubbio, to secure the Passages of the Spanish Weekly Couriers, with Dispatches and Money for the Army, from the Incursions of the Austrian Hussars, as well as to secure their Forage by Land, since by Sea they find it difficult to be supplied with any, by reason of the Arrival at Ancona of two British Ships of War. The Republick of Venice has suspended all Free Commerce with Lombardy.

Whitehall, January 17, 1743-4.
